Content

Please note that the normal pattern of use for the Cambridge Latin Course is:

Unit 1 Student Book (0-521-78228-7) used for Latin 1A of a split first-year course.
Unit 2 Student Book (0-521-78229-5) used for Latin 1B of a split first-year course.
OR Unit 1 and Unit 2 used for a first-year Latin course.

There is an on-going story line throughout the Student Books of the series. The story line provides for continuity and maintains high levels of student interest. However, the content of each Student Book is also complete and meaningful in and of itself, and does not require that students progress to the next level of instruction in order to learn appropriate language structures or read with comprehension and enjoyment.

The Unit 1 storyline is based in Pompeii, AD 79. Caecilius Iucundus and his family go about their daily lives until the eruption of Pompeii leads to family tragedy and the departure of son Quintus and freed slave Clemens.

Student Experiences

Please see information under the sections Organization, Assessment, and Research Data

Assessment

Ongoing assessment of student progress is provided in the Student Book (comprehension questions, exercises on grammar, syntax, and vocabulary), the Teacher's Manual (suggestions for assessment items and approaches; additional diagnostic oral and written assessments) and the Stage Tests.

Stage Tests provides a 100-item assessment for each Stage (chapter). Each test consists of a variety of carefully designed sections that provide teachers with an accurate evaluation of all aspects of each chapter, including reading comprehension, grammar, derivatives, and culture. Illustrations from the Student Book are included.

Organization

Each chapter (Stage): Opening Illustrations and Model Sentences (inductive presentation); Reading Selections; About the Language; Practicing the Language; Cultural Background; Word Study; Vocabulary Checklist. End of text: Language Information; Index of Cultural Topics; Index of Grammatical Topics; Time Chart
